

Join us in shaping the new Medical School at Bielefeld University:
Future-oriented, interprofessional, and strong in research and teaching

The Medical School OWL at Bielefeld University intends to fill at the Department of General and Visceral Surgery at Campus Bielefeld-Bethel (CBB) a

Professorship for Visceral Tumor Surgery (W2)

at the earliest possible date. Thereby associated is the position as chief senior physician at the Department of General and Visceral Surgery at CBB.

At Bielefeld University, an innovative Medical School with an interdisciplinary individual and population medicine orientation and the University Medical Center OWL, with the Klinikum Bielefeld, Evangelisches Klinikum Bethel (EvKB), and Klinikum Lippe as holders, are established. We are looking for personalities who want to seize the development situation and its challenges as a chance and actively participate in research, teaching, patient care, and organization. We offer an exciting environment that opens up a wide range of opportunities. You will be significantly involved in the further planning and implementation of the model study program in human medicine (according to ÄApprO), as well as in implementing the "clinician" and "advanced clinician scientist" programs, and you will have the opportunity to apply innovative concepts in teaching. At the same time, you will take on a significant role in developing an interconnected, inter/nationally competitive research profile "Medicine for people with disabilities and chronic diseases". For more information, please visit <https://www.uni-bielefeld.de/fakultaeten/medizin/forschung/profil/>.

The call aims at personalities with a promisingly national and international profile who can represent the field of expertise in research, teaching, and patient care in its entirety.

The prerequisites are:

- specialist qualification for visceral surgery and sub-specialization for special visceral surgery
- relevant doctorate, and additionally scientific achievements according to § 36 paras. 1; no. 4 HG NRW
- very well scientific achievements reflected in corresponding publications and third-party funding
- broad clinical experience in the field of expertise and leadership experience
- many years of broad clinical experience in colorectal surgery
- experience in planning, managing and conducting clinical oncology studies
- connectivity to the research profile of the Medical School OWL
- extensive teaching experience and experience with innovative teaching formats in the subject to be represented
- experience and active involvement in the equality-oriented promotion of young scientists

Desirable:

- experience in the coordination of a certified colorectal cancer center
- experience in the hepato-pancreato-biliary surgery
- experience in robotic surgery

As the holder of this position, you will represent and academically develop the clinical focus of surgery of visceral tumors of the lower gastrointestinal tract and ideally of the hepato-pancreato-biliary system. Furthermore, the willingness to cooperate closely with the colorectal cancer center of the Center for Visceral Medicine Bielefeld (<https://evkb.de/kliniken-zentren/zentren/bauchzentrum/>) at EvKB is expected. Here, the primarily minimally invasive therapy approach is routine for you, especially in colorectal surgery. You will also use an interdisciplinary, interprofessional and intersectoral approach to further develop the visceral medicine focus of the department's tumor surgery. The research focus of the professorship will include clinical-experimental studies on visceral tumors including their surgical techniques and, in perspective, the evaluation of the microbiome's function in the healthy organism and its role for disease development and therapeutic options.

Networking with the other clinics of the University Medical Center OWL, with other faculties of Bielefeld University and with the medical community in private practice in the region is also expected. Accordingly, we are looking for a personality with leadership experience and expertise in the entire field and excellent communication and coordination skills.

The EvKB would like to encourage female candidates, in particular, to apply for this position. Through a family-conscious personnel policy, the EvKB promotes a viable balance between personal lifestyle and career. Competent support is provided in arranging childcare places.

For the appeal applies:

The requirements for employment follow § 36 HG.

The tasks within patient care will be regulated via a contract with the Evangelisches Klinikum Bethel gGmbH (EvKB).

Applications from suitable persons with severe disabilities and persons with disabilities of equal status are expressly encouraged.

Bielefeld University has received several awards for its successes within equality and is certified as a family-friendly university. The university pursues a committed equal opportunities policy concerning the appointment of professorships, among other things, and would expressly like to invite qualified female applicants to apply. Applications are treated in concert with the State Equality Act. Family times will be considered in the context of the selection decision.

The Medical School OWL and the EvKB consider equality between women and men to be one main task, and the future jobholder will be involved in its implementation.

Bielefeld University supports dual-career constellations to establish a common centre of life and work.

Please submit your application by 30/11/2023 via the online appointment portal of Bielefeld University: <https://berufungen.uni-bielefeld.de/>

In addition to the usual application documents and information, we ask you to submit each a 2-page teaching and research concept paper and a concept concerning patient care. These concept papers should integrate gender- and diversity-specific content relevant to the advertised professorship. We expect a brief description of your previous and planned gender equality activities, besides, particularly for the promotion of young female scientists and the compatibility of career and family.
